GLENBROOK DAY CAMP STAFF CONDUCT AGREEMENT

"The mission of Willowgrove is to provide a setting and programs to help individuals, families and groups to develop a sense of personal worth, community spirit, service to mankind and appreciation of the natural world in which we live."

Glenbrook Day Camp Guiding Principles

- Wholesome fun and recreation
- The campers sense of self-worth
- Christian values of loving your neighbour
- The rich diversity of our community

As a staff member at Glenbrook Day Camp, I agree to the following:

I will follow all the set policies and regulations at Glenbrook Day Camp to ensure that campers and fellow staff will be in a safe atmosphere - physically, emotionally & spiritually. I will promote Glenbrook as a safe place for all children where they can seek out their own personal beliefs. I will also help all campers participate to the best of their abilities in all programs.

I will govern my personal actions while at camp to reflect the mission statement of Glenbrook. I also understand that Glenbrook Day Camp is a non-smoking and alcohol free facility.

I will conduct myself in a professional manner, responding to deadlines in a timely fashion and fulfilling my contract in full.

I will promote a commitment to service and strive for excellence in all programs offered.

I will maintain open lines of communication with my fellow staff members and will work to bring the Glenbrook staff closer together as a whole. If there is a problem between another staff member and myself, I will approach that specific person, and that person only. If the problem cannot be solved between us, I will go directly to my supervisor for assistance. I agree that if conflicts are resolved in this manner we will be able to prevent gossip and cliques, which will result in the promotion of group unity.

I will make an extended effort to help all campers feel comfortable and at ease. I will strive to make Glenbrook a place where a child's self-esteem and self-image can grow. I will treat people equally and with respect, no matter what race, religion or economic background they come from.

I understand that the camp offers a wide variety of events and activities. I also understand that I may be asked to participate and assist in jobs that are not directly related to my job.

I agree to all of these statements and understand that I will be held accountable to them.
